

Leading Haifa Based Human Rights Organization Seeks Experienced Freelance Grant Writer

Position Overview:

We are seeking an experienced freelance grant writer to join our fundraising team. The ideal candidate will have excellent writing and editing skills in English and the ability to craft high-level, complex grant proposals and donor reports. This position requires being in the Haifa office at least 1-2 times per week. There is potential for this role to become a permanent position.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and write compelling grant proposals and donor reports.
- Edit and proofread documents to ensure clarity, accuracy, and compliance with donor requirements.
- Conduct research to support proposal and report development.
- Collaborate with team members and other staff to gather necessary information for proposals.

Qualifications:

- Minimum of 5 years of applied grant writing experience.
- Exceptional writing and editing skills in English; proficiency in Hebrew/Arabic a plus.
- Proven ability to write high-level, complex proposals and donor reports.
- Deep understanding of the legal issues facing Palestinians in Israel, the West Bank, and Gaza.
- Strong grasp of the current political situation in Israel and its impact on Palestinians in Israel and in the OPT

Salary:

Depends on experience

How to Apply:

Please submit your resume, a cover letter, and two writing samples to jobs@adalah.org by 1 September 2024.